

2010-11 JV RESULTS

Northstar boys drop heart-breaker to Hightstown

Feb. 25: In a prelude to a thrilling varsity game, the Nottingham boys JV basketball team played a tense one against Hightstown before dropping a 39-37 decision.

Hightstown went ahead with 1.9 seconds remaining and Nottingham just missed on a final desperation heave. The same fate would befall the varsity in two overtimes a few hours later. Jamir Jenkins had 13 points for the Northstars.

Lansing explosion helps Hornets nip Nottingham

Feb. 22: John Lansing tossed in 27 points to lead Hamilton to a 56-55 victory over Nottingham in the boys JV basketball version of the backyard brawl. Jamir Jenkins continued his strong year with 22 for Nottingham.

Wood, McCarthy lead Steinert girls past Hornets

Feb. 14: The Steinert JV girls basketball team topped Hamilton, 55-22, last week as Carly Wood and Allison McCarthy each tallied 11 points. Caitlyn Wolfsgruber added seven points for the Spartans while Rachel Rivera had six. Steinert improved to 11-6.

Princeton's 3-point explosion buries 'Stars boys

Feb. 11: Princeton bombed in seven 3-pointers to take a 69-46 win over the Nottingham boys JV team. Jamir Jenkins led Nottingham with 16.

Leach-to-Lansing connection gives West thrilling OT win

Feb. 10: In a preview of the varsity game (only this one went the Hornets way), Hamilton's JV boys' basketball team got a last-second bucket from John Lansing to beat Hightstown in overtime tonight.

The Hornets led for the entire game until the Rams hit a 3-pointer at the end of regulation to tie it. With the game tied in OT, Hamilton needed to go the length of the court in three seconds.

"We set up an inbound play and the kids executed to perfection," coach Jason Malloy said. "We inbounded to our big man (Willie Leach), who turned and threw the length-of-the-court pass over the press to Johns Lansing, who caught a tipped pass, gathered himself and made the layup at the buzzer to pull out the win.

"It was a great game. And we play again on Monday (in the MCT prelim)."

Lenwood Squire led Hamilton with 14 points, including two 3-pointers. Lansing had 10 and Leach added eight.

Steinert girls fall to West Windsor-Plainsboro North

Feb. 10: Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber had another big game with 15 points, but it wasn't enough as the Steinert JV girls basketball team dropped a 37-28 decision to West Windsor-Plainsboro North tonight.

Spartans top Hopewell behind Wolfsgruber, Bachik

Feb. 8: The Steinert Girls JV girls basketball team defeated Hopewell Valley, 30-27. Steinert was led by Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber (7), Taylor Bachik (6) as the Spartans improved to 10-5.

Hamilton boys top HoVal for fourth straight win

Feb. 4: The Hamilton JV boys basketball team won its fourth straight with a 53-48 victory over Hopewell Valley tonight.

The Hornets led 28-22 but fell behind 38-32 before Anthony Anglin banked in a 3-pointer to cut the deficit to three entering the fourth quarter. Hamilton held an 18-10 advantage in the last eight minutes to pull away. John Lansing had 13 points while Anglin and freshman Dan Garcia had 10 each.

Hamilton, which improved to 8-4, went 9-for-12 from the foul line in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

Jenkins scores 29 but Ewing tops Northstars

Feb 4: Jamir Jenkins scored 29 points but it wasn't enough as Ewing topped Nottingham, 61-48, in boys JV basketball tonight.

J&J has a day as Jamel and Jenkins pace 'Stars boys

Feb. 1: Nabil Jamel tallied 19 points and Jamir Jenkins added 12 as Nottingham's JV boys basketball team topped Steinert, 67-60, tonight. That puts the Northstars at 6-5.

Wood, Bouche tab 10 apiece as Spartan girls prevail

Feb. 1: Carly Wood and Adrienne Boucher each had 10 points to lead Steinert's girls JV team to a 44-22 win over Nottingham tonight. Olivia Peate added eight for the Spartans, while Selena Santos paced the Northstars with five.

Nabil Jemal goes up to try and block Masuon Cueto's shot during Nottingham's 49-47 win over Robbinsville Friday night (Photo by Mary "Mom" Malone).

Northstar boys hold off Robbinsville for fifth win

Jan. 28: The Nottingham boys JV basketball team survived a last-second 3-point attempt by Robbinsville to take a 49-47 victory tonight.

Jamir Jenkins had 19 points as the Northstars improved to 5-5. Rophe Beaubrun added nine points and Nabil Jamel added eight.

Lansing paces Hamilton boys past Lawrence

Jan 28: John Lansing scored 10 points and Hamilton's boys JV basketball team used a fourth-quarter rally to take a 35-31 win over Lawrence tonight and improve to 7-4.

The Hornets trailed by eight early in the third quarter and by four after three, but outscored the Cards by eight in the final eight minutes. Justin Dodd had a strong all-around game and Dan Garcia hit a clutch free throw down the stretch.

Hamilton boys edge Ewing for second straight win

Jan. 25: After a three-game losing streak, Hamilton is on a two-game winning streak after tonight's 40-38 victory over Ewing.

John Lansing led all scorers with 18 for Jason Malloy's team, while Sal Angotti added six.

"Angotti played a great defensive game," Malloy said. "And Willie Leach played a monster game inside on the boards."

Freshman Dan Garcia hit two clutch free throws with 20 seconds left to provide the lead and Hamilton got a stop at the end to seal it.

Peate, Wolfsgruber carry Spartan girls to another win

Jan. 25: Olivea Peate tallied 10 points and Caitlyn Wolfsgruber chipped in with seven as the Steinert girls JV team topped Princeton, 32-13. The victory raised the Spartans record to 8-3.

Jenkins eruption can't save Nottingham boys at Trenton

Jan. 25: Jamir Jenkins exploded for 36 points to continue his torrid scoring, but Trenton still managed to take a 73-63 victory over Nottingham's JV boys basketball team tonight.

Rivera finds 13 a lucky number as Steinert wins again

Jan. 24: Rachel Rivera had the hot hand with 13 points as the Steinert JV girls basketball team took a 51-40 win over Pennington today. Adrianna Boucher and Ali McCarthy contributed eight points each, while Olivia Peate and Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber added six each for the 7-3 Spartans.

Spartan girls win twice in two nights to move to 5-3

Jan. 21: The Steinert JV girls' basketball team had a successful two-night run, defeating Lawrence 31-25 tonight and topping Northern Burlington, 33-25, on Thursday.

Against the Cardinals, Stephanie Grabowski scored 13 points while Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber had eight. Rachel Rivera and Kaitlyn Fedor both played strong defense.

Against NBC, Wolfsgruber and Carly Wood tallied eight points each while Adrianna Boucher tabbed four.

The wins improved Cindy "The Cap" Astore's team to 5-3.

Jenkins 30 points can't save Nottingham boys

Jan. 21: Jamir Jenkins exploded for 30 points but it wasn't enough as Hightstown's boys' JV team beat Nottingham, 51-48, tonight.

Allentown's 3-pointers send Stars boys to defeat

Jan. 18: Allentown hit nine 3-point field goals to sink Nottingham's boys JV basketball team, 49-42, tonight. Nabil Jamel led the Northstars with 10 points.

Nottingham boys squeak past Hopewell Valley

Jan. 15: Jamir Jenkins had 12 points and Nabil Jamel added 10 as Nottingham's JV Boys' basketball team took a 38-34 win over Hopewell Valley tonight. Joe Radice's Northstar team raised its record to 4-2.

Steinert girls edge West Windsor-Plainsboro South

Jan. 15: The Steinert JV girls basketball team got six points from Carly Wood in a 29-27 win over West Windsor-Plainsboro South tonight. The Spartans (4-2) got four points each from Olivia Peate, Ali McCarthy and Stephanie Grabowski.

Jenkins' scoring helps Northstars boys to 3-1 start

Jan. 7: The Nottingham boys JV basketball team suffered its first loss of the season tonight, 65-42, to West Windsor-Plainsboro South.

Prior to that, the Northstars had ridden the scoring of Jamir Jenkins to three straight victories. Jenkins scored 28 in a 56-55 thriller over Princeton, had 21 in a 63-54 victory over WW-P North and 13 in a 48-45 win over Lawrence.

Rivera's 11 help lift Steinert girls over Robbinsville

Jan. 7: Rachel Rivera scored 11 points to help the Steinert JV girls' basketball team to a 41-25 victory over Robbinsville tonight. Adrianna Boucher added seven points for the Spartans while Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber and Alison McCarthy added six each.

The win – which served as a day-early birthday present for coach Cindy "The Cap" Astore -- puts Steinert at 3-2 with a big game against Hamilton West Tuesday.

Harris has 19 in Nottingham girls' loss to WW-P South

Jan. 7: Nakisia Harris tallied 19 points but it wasn't quite enough as West Windsor-Plainsboro South's JV girls' basketball team took a 36-34 win over Nottingham tonight. Coach Melissa "Shop 'N Bag" Foley said that Valerie Suto and Annisa Holman both played strong defense.

On Tuesday, Dee Dee Augustyn had strong game in the Northstars 36-34 loss to Lawrence.

Spartan girls pull away in second half to top Rams

Dec. 23: The Steinert JV girls' basketball team topped Hightstown, 32-27, today, snapping a 12-12 tie after halftime. Kaitlyn Wolfsgruber tallied nine points, Rachel Rivera added eight while Olivia Peate and Alison McCarthy combined for 10.

After winning by a point, 'Stars girls lose by one

Say what you want about the Nottingham girls, but they make things exciting.

After winning a one-point game in overtime to start the season, the Northstars fell 33-32 to Princeton tonight. Coach Melissa "Shop 'N Bag" Foley felt that Harmonee Clark has a strong game for Nottingham.

Spartan girls have tough time against Allentown

The Steinert girls dropped a 30-19 decision to Allentown despite five points from Meghan Keefe and four from Kaitlyn Wolfgruber.

Septer, Parriski help Hornet girls squeak past Warriors

Dec. 20: Erin Septer and Nicole Parriski scored eight points apiece as Hamilton's girls basketball team held off New Egypt, 30-29, today at the Hornets Nest. Hamilton carried a 28-23 lead into the fourth quarter and survived when a last-second jumper by the Warriors misfired.

Erin Ford and Morgan Decker added six points each for the Hornets.

'Stars girls top Hornets in overtime to start the season

Dec. 17: Melissa "Shop 'N Bag" Foley is new to the basketball coaching business, still young and enthusiastic.

But more games like her opener will make the grocery store magnate age quickly.

Foley and Nottingham High's JV girls team had a successful first night tonight, as Devonna Simmons foul shot proved to be the only point in overtime as the Northstars took a 41-40 victory at Hamilton.

"Oh my God, what a game," said Foley afterward.

Prior to her sparkling varsity debut, freshman Jalliet Taylor scored 17 points "and played tremendous," according to the coach, and Simmons "also played very well."

Dana Davies added seven for Nottingham, while Erin Septer led the Hornets with 17.

Lansing, Dodd help Hamilton open with a victory

Dec. 17: John Lansing scored 11 points and Justin Dodd added 10 as the Hamilton West boys JV basketball team rolled to a 57-37 win over Nottingham tonight.

Jamir Jenkins powered the Northstars with 25 points.

Spartan girls roll past West Windsor-Plainsboro South

Dec. 17: In her never-ending quest for a Fish4Scores baseball cap, Cindy Astore got her Steinert girls basketball team off to a strong start with a 40-35 opening-night win over West Windsor-Plainsboro South.

Olivia Peate had nine points for the Spartans, while Carly Wood and Rachel Rivera added six apiece to "cap" the effort.