2011-12 HAMILTON WEST ICE HOCKEY OUTLOOK

Head coaches: Matt Hamilton, Paul "Bone Chip" Vichroski

Assistants: Matt Hamilton, Paul "Bone Chip" Vichroski

CVC Division: Valley

Last season: 8-12-1 (6-5-1 CVC Patriot)

Captains: Sean Tohill, Shawn Hrymack, Evan Morris

Hamilton says: We have a group of hard working kids who have played together for a few years now, and we're counting on that experience to help us compete after moving up to the Valley Division. The move up a level is a testament to how much this group has progressed skill-wise over the past few years, but now we'll have to work even harder with the tougher schedule.

I expect us to give every team a run for their money, steal a few, and hopefully have a shot to qualify for the State Tournament at the end. We'll lean on Evan (Morris) a lot, as he is one of, if not the, best goaltenders in the area. (Sean) Tohill, (Thomas) Tramontana and (Kyle) Rogers will put pucks in the net, and our defensive group of (David) Osnato, (Shawn) Hrymack and (Gerry) Gomez is solid. If we are disciplined and stay out of the penalty box, we'll be successful this season.

Let's Start With: Hornets open on Thursday, Dec. 1, with a 9 p.m. game against Notre Dame at Lawrenceville.
