Plenty of firsts for Hornets in opening-day win over Trenton

Sep. 9: The Hamilton West girls' soccer team took care of business to start the season, rolling to a 10-0 victory over Trenton at home today.

It was a game that featured a Hornet hat trick, first career goal for five different players and the first career shutout for the goalie.

Sam Barlow had the hat trick, as she scored the game's first two goals and assisted on the third. In her first varsity game, Kierhan Schuster tallied two goals, while freshman Samantha Santiago also found the back of the net in her first varsity game.

Also finding the back of the net for the first time on the varsity level were Colleen Murphy, Selina Cifelli and Allyson Prekop. All three added assists.

Loran Wyrrough also added a goal and an assist, while Danielle Schneck had two assists and Stephanie Sparano and Angelina Cifelli added one apiece.

Erin Septer notched the shutout, needing just one save in the process.
