Swamprats make quick work of WW-P South with seven first-period pins

Jan. 10: Big points led to another big win tonight for Nottingham's wrestling team.

The Swamprats got seven pins – all in the first period – and one forfeit as they defeated West Windsor-Plainsboro South, 48-25, to improve to 10-2 heading into Wednesday night's dual against Lawrence.

Picking up the victories for Nottingham were Josh Magee (106), Hector Davila (126), Jacob Kouroume (132), Waleed Abouelela (145), Kerven Simon (160), Jancel Nunez (182) and Wroway Williams (285). Hector Comulado (220) was awarded the forfeit.

Davila and Nunez are now both 12-2 while Williams improved to 11-2. Abouelela is 10-4 with six consecutive wins and Magee is 9-4.
