

Jan. 27-28 Hamilton PAL Girls Basketball

Nandy, Sperrazza pace Poor Boy to second straight in Junior play

Sumona Nandy had eight points and Grace Sperrazza added six as Poor Boy Sub Shop held off a late rally by Gold Shield Financial to take a 20-19 win in Hamilton PAL girls basketball Junior Division play. Bridget Simmons chipped in with four for the winners. Madison Balke led Gold Shield with eight points while Mecca Reeves added four for Gold Shield.

Hair Styling Shear Pleasure defeated TSS Photography of Mercer, 26-15, as Paige Meszaros collected 16 points and Jenn Shane added four. Kelly Marrone, Erica Nasto and Madison Diaz combined for TSS Photography's 15 points.

The Hamilton Elks rode a 15-point performance by Sarena Campanella to a 26-20 win over Trophies Unlimited. Trophies got 10 from Kristin "Z" Hallam and four from Samantha Cibery.

AMMK withstood a Mercer Spring fourth-quarter rally for a 31-29 win. Grace Dwyer and Mary Kate Madonia each scored 12 points for AMMK, while Caitlyn Burns and Amanda Ferlisi scored 12 and 11 points, respectively, for Mercer Spring.

LAST WEEK

The Hamilton Elks rallied from a nine-point deficit in the final quarter to post a 26-19 win over Mercer Spring. Sarena Campanella led the way for the Elks with 19 points. Caitlyn Burns led Mercer with 11 points, while Kasey Giordano and MacKenzie Mabin each added four.

AMMK defeated Poor Boy Sub Shop, 39-29, behind the 14-point effort of Mary Kate Madonia. Meaurie Pickett and Grace Dwyer each added six while Tracey Mraw and Nicole Russo combined for eight. Poor Boy was led by Cassidy Wood (8), Grace Sperrazza (6) and Megan Simmons (4)

Gold Shield Financial led wire to wire in upsetting second place TSS Photography of Mercer, 27-23. Brianna Dorner led Gold Shield with six points while Mecca Reeves, Tyra Torres and Tatiana Dorner combined for 11 points. TSS was led by Melissa Simmons with six points, followed by Kelly Marrone (5) and Rachel Tierney (4).

Hair Styling Shear Pleasure defeated Trophies Unlimited, 36-20. Jenn Shane led the way with nine points. Haylee Kieffer added eight while Samantha Wuensch had six and Paige Meszaros five. Trophies Unlimited was led by Jess Adamo's nine points, while Kristin "Z" Hallam added six and Gabby Lucci added four.

Freshman Division

O'Donnell drops a bomb on DeCou's undefeated season

DeCou Hose Co. was 30 seconds away from maintaining its undefeated record in the Freshman Division.

And then Grace O'Donnell launched a 3-point bomb with 29 seconds left to give Gothic Lodge a 13-12 victory over previously unbeaten DeCou. Nicole Angelini added four points for the Lodge, while Emily Midura (5) and Alexa Lepold (4) led DeCou.

Alex Haley had six points while Ciara Donaldson and Alise Woodruff dropped in four each as the Jersey Girls defeated The Defenders, 18-7. Lauren LeClaire, Julia Glozer, Sarah Samo and Jasmine Lewis combined for The Defender points.

Herbert VanNess Cayce & Goodell defeated Mercer County FOP No. 96, 23-19, behind Ally Oldfield's eight points, five from Giana Boulden and four from Brielle Spadola. Rachel Doan and Abby Brower led FOP No. 96 with 10 and six points respectively.

Sophomore Division

Markie on the mark for PBA No. 66, Lucchesi clutch for Roma Bank

PBA No. 76 rallied in the second half for a 15-14 win over Hamilton Fire Co. in Sophomore Division play. Markie Watson led the way with 10 points while Natalie Mehl added five. Ivonne Vasquez and Abby Sprague scored six and four, respectively, for Hamilton Fire.

Roma Bank tied its game with Raines Photogroup at the regulation buzzer and won it, 18-17, on Gianna Lucchesi's foul shot as overtime expired. Lucchesi led all scorers with eight points while Marissa Lewis and Leila Collazo each scored four. Nicole Tonzini led Raines with six points while Juliana Barnaba and Peyton Olsen each added four.

Lee Bradbury Plumbing defeated Nottingham Fire Co. 14-3. Victoria Posivak and Jordan Jones each scored four points for Bradbury and Korissa Edwards scored a basket for Nottingham.

Emerald Title Agency defeated Prior-Nami Business Systems, 26-16, as Kiera Wilkinson scored six while Sydney Sarno, Giana Pittaro and Alexandra Wagner each added four. Madison Diaz led Prior-Nami with seven points and Nicole Cerasi added four.

Senior Division

Bradbury's doubleheader sweep is Taylor-made; Williams answers buzzer

Jalliet Taylor scored 13 points to lead Bradbury Plumbing to a 31-23 win over Aztec Plumbing, then followed with 14 points in Bradbury's 27-11 win over Kusnirik Law Office.

Markie Haughton (6), Alissa "Scooter" Brugnoli (4) and Jamilla Dunn (4) aided Bradbury in game one, while Stephanie Williams had 15 for Aztec and Khrystyna Chaykovska chipped in with seven. Destiny Dunn had six in the win over Kusnirik, while Madison Balke had four in defeat.

Aztec Graphics defeated PBA No. 66 in overtime, 27-26, on a 3-point buzzer beater by Williams. Williams had 15 points and Chaykovska added four. PBA was led by Kelsey Harshman's 11 points, eight from Tatiana Marcucci and six from Nicole Migliaccio.

The Olden Pharmacy continued its undefeated ways by defeating PBA No. 66, 41-25, as Gabi Bennett led Olden with 23 points and Lindsay Usarzewicz added 12. Kelsey Harshman tabbed 10 for PBA while Leigh Anne Carter added eight and Olivia Peate had five.

Olden also took a 35-18 win over JEM Trophies as Usarzewicz scored 13, followed by Adrianna Boone (9), Nicole Stull (7) and Bennett (4). Jem got eight each from Dalia Lopez and Maria Lucci.

Lopez scored 14 in JEM's 26-19 win over Kusnirik Law Office. Lucci and Mecca Reeves had six each. Balke led Kusnirik with eight and Allison Prekop had six.